Roman Catholic.

32 Dispensaries, 19 Hospitals, 2 Leper Asylums.

A sum of £45 (Rs. 675) taken from Government Grant was devoted to these Institutions of Charity.

The Neophytes are 163,280 against 155,355 in 1917, making for the current year an increase of 7,925 baptized Christians. But on account of diseases, epidemics and famine that have prevailed throughout almost all the missions, the Catechumens have not augmented in proportion: their number being 47,384 against 51,608 in 1917. For the same reasons, the number of baptisms has been less by 1,264 compared with last year: 12,513 against 13,797 in 1917.
